

Are You Interested in Improving Your Child Care or Preschool Facility Spaces?

- To provide healthier, calmer learning settings for young children
- To attract client families
- To provide supportive, functional spaces that teachers enjoy

Join us for a Free Working Session & Training
Tuesday, April 24, 1:00-4:00 p.m.
Plus, Optional 10:30 am-noon session

Featuring

Kathy Tama, author of the Early Learning Facilities Quality Checklist & Guide
Kristen Anderson, Child Care Partnership Council of SMC, Facilities Committee

Participants should complete and bring at least the short “Checklist” version. The Checklist and Guide are available, on the 4Cs website, in fillable pdf format for ease of use:

<http://www.sanmateo4cs.org/providers/provider-resources/>

Topics will include:

- How to identify “easy fixes” to improve environments, including rearranging, repurposing, and enhancing existing space & materials
- How to prioritize changes you want to make and create short- and long-term plans
- How to avoid facility “emergencies” resulting from deferred maintenance
- How to find resources to make changes and sources of recommended products

Optional Morning Session with Kathy Tama

10:30 am-noon, Tuesday, April 24

Participants who complete at least 10 sections of the longer “Guide” can ask questions about their results and discuss problem areas.

Location: 4Cs/Sobrato Center for Nonprofits, Shoreway Room, 350 Twin Dolphin Dr., Redwood City
